Press Release

Astana - On the 29th of April, 2016, certain specific documents were signed by JSC NC "KazMunayGas" (hereinafter - KMG) and China CEFC Energy Company Limited (hereinafter - CEFC), for a partnership within KMG International NV (KMG I) where CEFC will have a 51% participation and KMG a 49% participation, respectively.

As part of the agreement, CEFC undertakes to carry out under KMG I partnership investments in Europe and countries along Silk Road in the future.

KMG I and its subsidiaries serve as foundation for the development of the joint project of Kazakhstan's National Oil and Gas Operator NC KMG and the Chinese company CEFC, named the Silk Way project. A joint working group of experts from Kazakhstan, China and Romania has undertaken significant preliminary works – particularly on the 14th of December, 2015 when there was signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the witness of the Prime Ministers of Kazakhstan and China, and on the 29th of January of this year when the parties agreed on the Key Terms of the Transaction (Term Sheet).

Sauat Mynbayev, the Head of NC KMG, stated: "In alliance with such a strong investor we can make a major breakthrough in this direction using KMG I and its subsidiaries as a joint platform for business development".

Mr. Zang Jianjun, the Executive Director of CEFC, asserted: "The cooperation between CEFC and KMG is based on the strategic development objective, which will make KMG I a joint platform for both parties to achieve resources and performing strategy investment. This development is highly consistent with the spirit of 'One Belt One Road' and 'Nurly Zhol'. We believe, it will be a win-win cooperation for us to build a long term strategic partnership."

It is planned that KMG I's governance shall be carried out on the parity basis.

The transaction is subject to various conditions precedent, including final approval by various European, Chinese and other regulatory authorities. It is expected the transaction will be completed by October, 2016.

Background information:

CEFC is one of the most dynamically developing private companies in China. In 2014 the company entered the list of Global Fortune 500 and was ranked 349. CEFC carries out its activity in energy, financial and investment industries.

KMG International (former The Rompetrol Group NV) was acquired by KMG in 2007. The company owns two refineries in Romania, Petromidia and Vega as well as an integrated network of filling stations in the EU countries and in the Black Sea Region. In accordance with the Decree of the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan from the 30th of December, 2015, KMG I company was included in the list of companies subject to privatization.
