This Remuneration Report is prepared for the financial year ended on December 31, 2024 in accordance with the Remuneration Policy mentioned above.

The Remuneration Report will be submitted to the advisory vote of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company ("OGMS") on April 28/29, 2025, and will be published on the official website of the Company on <https://rompetrolwellservices.kmginternational.com/relatia-cu-investitorii/guvernanta-corporativa> and will remain available to the public for 10 years from the date of publication, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

The Remuneration Report provides an overview of the gross remuneration, including all benefits, regardless of form, granted or due during the last financial year, to the Company's individual Directors, including newly appointed and former executives in accordance with the Remuneration Policy.

The Directors of the Company are only those who hold following positions: (i) members of the Board of Directors, and (ii) executive directors, as they are defined by the provisions of the Companies' Law no. 31/1990.

The main features of the remuneration system can be summarized as follows:

Remuneration element	The purpose and connection with the strategy
Fixed remuneration	Fixed level of earnings that reflects the scale and complexity of the business, the roles, and responsibilities of each Director, ensuring competitiveness with the market.
Variable remuneration	Compensation provided in the Collective Labor Agreement at the Company level, as well as variable compensation based on annual financial and non-financial performance criteria that are relevant to the Company's strategy.

The basic principles of the Remuneration Policy are: pay for performance, maintaining competitiveness in the labor market and internal equity. They align the interests of decision-makers in the Company with the interests of shareholders and other stakeholders (e.g., employees or the general public).

The Remuneration Policy creates an appropriate framework for attracting talent and cultivating the skills needed to achieve the company's objectives, helping to increase the level of talent retention. It also contributes to the successful implementation of the company's short-, medium- and long-term strategy, providing the necessary and flexible tools to remunerate the Company's Directors, including for exceptional situations and achievements.

The total remuneration contributes to the long-term development of the Company by maintaining a high level of motivation of the Company's Directors and their retention, as well as by attracting talents within the Company. The equitable reward of the performance in activity in accordance with the added value created for the shareholders thus supports the level of profitability of the Company.

By offering a competitive fixed remuneration in the market, by rewarding the technical knowledge and managerial skills of the Company's Directors, their degree of satisfaction, commitment and perseverance is kept to a high level.

The variable remuneration is determined, and it is granted according to the fulfillment of the strategic performance objectives and indicators at Company level. The payment of a variable remuneration stimulates the delivery of the maximum results for the Company, ensuring operational continuity at a maximum level of performance.

As per the Remuneration Policy, the remuneration elements are: fixed remuneration (salaries and indemnities/ allowances) and variable remuneration (bonuses, aids, benefits).

During 2024, in accordance with the mandate contracts and the Collective Labor Agreement in force, the Company's Directors on positions received fixed and variable remuneration for their activity in line with the Remuneration Policy, as well as labor market.
